

My Dearest Robin

27 years ago The Ceremony, Our Vows, and My Ring
Little did I know the strength,
The Love, The Joy, Ultimately to my heart
Your love would bring.

Throughout our lives together The Sacrifices
The Struggles only you and I really know
But we pressed on striving to continue
To make our love grow.

I know with my career a lot of your days were long and nights even longer
But your commitment and dedication to my passion, made my love for you even stronger

Your spirit, your fight, your spunk are just a few things I loved about you
I could go on for days.
Just know how much you've touched
My Heart. Forever and Always.

In our vows 27 years ago we said "Til death do us part"

Now I wake up each and every morning
And wonder, where do I start?

All my love Rexbo
